

February 2009 Antique Angel News Snippets

25 February:

All Block of the Month and Fabric and Project clubs have now been sent out for February. We are now preparing everything for March postings - finish one thing and we are onto the next.

19 February:

We have started work on our new batik block of the month. Its exciting as we haven't made a batik block of the month before and we plan to release it at Malvern Quilt show in May!

16 February:

I have just heard that our order from Lakehouse is now ready - there are 50 lovely delicious new fabrics coming in and we hope that they will arrive for us to take them to Exeter and Chilford. These are lovely fresh greens, pinks and just a dash of lemon and blue along with creams and whites to coordinate the collection.
